Take Your Child to the Library Day

Saturday, February 3, 9:00am - 12:00pm

This annual event takes place on the first Saturday of February at thousands of libraries across the world. Our library will be celebrating with a free Take and Make craft and encouraging families to come play in our children's area, sign up in our 1,000 books program, apply for a free library card for you or your child(ren) and check out materials!

Pete the Cat Loves the Library Party

Thursday, February 8, 6:30-7:30pm

Have a groovy time while visiting Pete the Cat themed stations around the community room. All are welcome to enjoy crafts, activities, and snacks. Celebrate with Pete in one of his favorite places, the library!

Free Parent Toddler Class

Saturdays, Feb 10, 17, 24 & Mar 2; 9:30-10:30AM

Explore a child-friendly, prepared environment with early childhood educator Amanda Isaksson. Resources, expert advice and book recommendations provided. For families with children ages 15 months - 3 years. Siblings welcome.

Reservation required: Use the QR Code at right.

Friday Flick - The Hill

Friday, February 16th at 1:00PM

The Hill is an inspiring, true story of baseball phenomenon Rickey Hill (Colin Ford). The son of a small-town traveling pastor (Dennis Quaid), Rickey shows an extraordinary talent for baseball despite being burdened from a degenerative spinal disease. He must overcome his condition in order to fulfill his dream of playing professional baseball.

Next dates: March 15 & April 19 - Movies TBA

Teen Cricut Workshop

Thursday, February 29; 4:00PM - 7:00PM (60 min time slot reservations)

Calling all creative teens! Make a design on a canvas bag or pencil pouch to take home. Cricut training and supplies provided.

Reservation required: Call or stop by the circulation desk soon.

Oscars Contest

Contest Forms Available: February 26 - March 9

Are you a movie buff? Try your hand at guessing who will win the "Best of" for the Academy Award nominations by completing our contest form. Prizes for top 3 forms.
