

CAMBRIDGE COMMUNITY LIBRARY

The library will be closed on Thursday, November 28th for Thanksgiving.

NOVEMBER 2024

Adult Coloring

Wednesday, November 6th, 6-7pm

Stress can get to all of us—especially as we approach the holiday season. Surprisingly, meditative coloring has shown to be one of the most impactful tools to combat stress—yes, even for adults! We provide the materials, so come spend an hour relaxing your mind with the stroke of a pencil and calming music.

Grief Support

Wednesday, November 13th, 6-7pm

Though many enjoy the holiday season, it can be one of the most difficult times for those who are grieving. Jake Rademacher (MS, CRC, LPC-IT) from Agrace is coming to the library to give a presentation designed to help people who are struggling to understand and express their grief and to give advice to those trying to support their grieving loved ones.

Friday Flick: Someone Like You

Friday, November 15th at 1pm

After the shocking news of losing his best friend London, Dawson launches an impossible search for London's secret twin sister separated as embryos. Popcorn and bottled water provided. Movie goes pick the next monthly movie.

Next: Friday, December 20th

Writing Workshop

Tuesday, November 19th, 5-7pm

Are you wanting to get some writing done but struggling to find the time and motivation? Do you love writing but aren't sure what to write? Either way, this writing workshop is for you. From 5-6pm, you can choose to work independently on your own project (memoir, fiction novel, poetry, etc.), or you can take advantage of our provided writing prompts. From 6-7pm, you can choose to read excerpts from what you wrote, discuss your work with other writers, and brainstorm new ideas!

Leaf Bowls

Wednesday, November 20th, 6-7pm

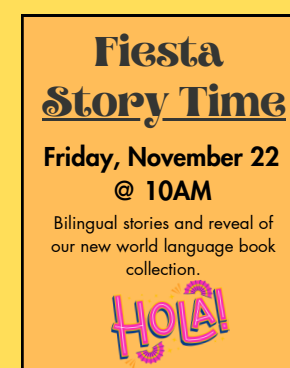

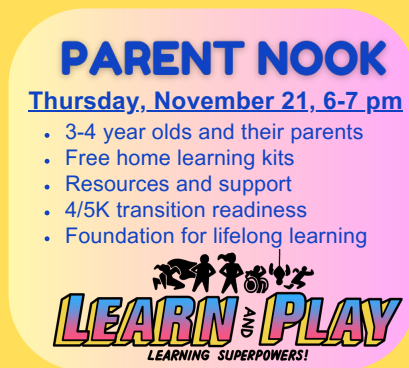

Whether you're looking for a creative gift to give this holiday season or you want to expand your Thanksgiving displays at home, you can come create a serving bowl made entirely out of autumn leaves! The result of this guided craft will leave all of your family members impressed.

Book Club Discussion

Tuesday, November 26th, 6-7pm

Join us to discuss the feminist retelling of Circe, by Madeline Miller. It is an intoxicating epic of family rivalry, palace intrigue, love and loss, as well as a celebration of indomitable female strength in a man's world. Books can be requested by calling or visiting the library.
