

CAMBRIDGE COMMUNITY LIBRARY

The library will be closed on New Year's Day, January 1st.

JANUARY 2025

Incllement Weather Policy

The Cambridge Community Library determines their winter emergency opening and closing procedures by using the Cambridge School District's determination as a guide. Please call the Cambridge Community Library (608-423-3900) before venturing out to the library whenever the school district is closed or opening late due to road conditions. Please see our complete weather policy at www.cambridgelib.org.

Teen Vision Boards

Wednesday, January 8th, 4pm-5pm

Thinking about plans for the future can be daunting, but what better time to do so than right when the new year begins? Take life by the horns, and come create your own vision board to bring your dreams and goals for this year and beyond to life!

Cybersecurity for Homes

Wednesday, January 15th, 3pm-4pm

Tired of receiving phishing texts, phone calls, and emails? Unsure of what you can trust? Come listen to a one-hour walk through on how to identify and avoid scams, presented by Sussanah Barnes, the Senior Manager of Digital Customer Experience at Alation.

Family Lego Night

Thursday, January 16th, 5:00-6:30pm

Come have fun building Legos with your family. Lego sets provided or bring yours from home. All ages welcome. Participants are welcome to display their creations at the library.

Friday Flick: White Bird

Friday, January 17th at 1pm

After being expelled from Beecher Prep for his treatment of a classmate with a facial deformity, Julian has struggled to fit in at his new school. To transform his life, Julian's grandmother finally reveals her own story of courage of her youth in Nazi-occupied France, where a classmate shelters her from mortal danger. Based on the 2019 graphic novel of the same name and serves as a prequel and sequel to Wonder (2017).

Next: Friday, February 21st

New Book Club

Tuesday, January 28th, 6pm-7pm

Join us to discuss the 2023 novel by Meg Shaffer that details a young woman's trepidatious journey to adopt a boy. Impeded by her financial situation, she invests all her hope in contest borne of the whimsical machinations of the world's most famous children's author. Books can be requested by calling or visiting the library.
