BADGER TALKS

Senior Luncheon w/ Michael Leckrone Moments of Happiness: My History with the UW Marching Band Wednesday, April 9

Optional Lunch: 12:00pm; Program: 12:30pm
When Mike Leckrone became director of the Wisconsin Marching Band, interest in the program was low. By creating a new, demanding marching style, "stop at the top", a pre-game run on, and the development of the band's "fifth quarter" post-game performances, he emphasized showmanship and turned the program around. Mike will share an overview, including funny anecdotes and stories, regarding the evolution of "The greatest band in the land." He will discuss his history as an educator, leader and motivator, and explain the journey of development of the UW Spring Band Concert from a modest performance for 400 loyal fans in 1975, to a three night extravaganza drawing in more than 35,000 people. Lunch is optional. Please call the CAP Office to make your lunch reservation at 608-423-8108.

Poetry Writing Workshop Wednesday April 16, 3-4pm

Joined by Creative Writing and Poetry professor at Southern New Hampshire University, Becky Hansen, participants will have the opportunity to experience a variety of poetry, practice finding inspiration, and stretch their creative muscles. Becky will also share some of her top tips for what not to do and some places writers can check out if they want to publish their poetry.

Spring Storywalk® March 1 - May 31

When it is cold and snowy and bleak and brown, Spring seems very far away. But, if you wait, soon you will see leaves and blossoms. Soon you will feel pussy willows and raindrops. Soon you will smell flowers and mud. Soon you will hear birds and buzzing bees.
Are you ready for Spring?

Put on your gear and head outside for our Spring Storywalk! Maps outside the library doors.
