Ellis Lacey has come of age in small-town Ireland in the years following World War Two. Though skilled at bookkeeping, she cannot find a job in the miserable Irish economy. When an Irish priest from Brooklyn offers to sponsor Ellis in America—to live and work in a Brooklyn neighborhood "just like Ireland"—she decides she must go, leaving her fragile mother and her charismatic sister behind. Ellis finds work in a department store on Fulton Street, and when she least expects it, finds love. But just as Ellis begins to fall in love with Tony, devastating news from Ireland threatens the promise of her future.
